Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) when was Veterinary Inspector Mr. K. Govinda Warriar transferred to Chittur ;

(b) how long has he been this time in Chittur ;

(c) is it not the general understanding that such officers will be kept at least three years in a station ;

(d) if so, what was the provocation for this special treatment ;

(e) wherefrom was he transferred to Chittur ;

(f) whereto was he transferred from Chittur ?

Dr. A. R. Menon (Minister for Rural Development):

(a) The transfer was from 24th Chingam 1114, but the Veterinary Surgeon joined duty in Chittur-Tattamangalam only on 23rd Thulam 1114 on the expiry of the privilege leave granted to him.

(b) He was at Chittur (Tattamangalam) from 23rd Thulam 1114 to 12th Kanni 1115.

(c) No such understanding.

(d) The question does not arise in view of answer to question No.(c).

(e) He was transferred from Trippunittura to Chittur (Tattamangalam).

(f) From Chittur (Tattamangalam) to Vadakkancheri.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon (Chittur-Rural): Was there any special reason for transferring Mr. Govinda Warriar within eleven months?

Dr. A. R. Menon (Minister for Rural Development): No special reason except his request.
